SKRADIN

Simply delightful in every single detail – small, picturesque and tasteful, Skradin is located on the spot where the river Krka kisses the sea. At this area, where ancient Romans used to moor their galleys 2000 years ago, lies the picturesque town of Skradin, where the simultaneous sounds of crickets and frogs best describe what a magical natural place this is. The old town of this fairytale-like place has been declared a protected cultural monument, and Skradin, the favourite meeting location of yachtsmen, also stands as the “maritime” entrance to another natural wonder – the nearby Krka National Park.

DEFINITELY VISIT:

Skradin & Roski waterfalls • Krka national park
Island of Visovac • Church of Our Lady • Church of Our Lady

PRIMOSTEN

Primošten is an island town, surrounded by seven smaller islands. It is a typical Mediterranean town, home to two beautiful small churches: the church of St. George, built in 1485, and the church of St. Rocco, built in 1680. Those who enjoy sports may take part in playing tennis, beach volleyball, parasailing, jet-ski riding, as well as scuba diving for all levels.

SOLTA ISLAND

Maslinica (Solta Island), the new rising star on the Adriatic coast! And it shines so bright! Pitoresque and charming place with modern highlights is a perfect place for your vacations and relaxation. Bars & beach bars, restaurants, marina, the most beautiful sunset, small island archipelago in front of the Maslinica bay, special restaurants in the vicinity bays, great accommodation offer and genuine hospitality! Make sure not to miss this gem!

HVAR ISLAND

Hvar town is known as the hippest destination on the Adriatic, a place where you must be seen. But this beautiful town has something for everyone: incredibly glamorous night life, exclusive restaurants, a great art scene, wonderful views from the 17th century fortress, a magnificent piazza, one of the oldest public theatres in Europe... and the perfect climate. During the day, a set of small islets right across from Hvar town, offers tranquil bays, beautiful beaches and several great restaurants. Sail around them to find your perfect spot, drop anchor and enjoy the blueness of the sea and the relaxing atmosphere.

BRAC ISLAND

Brač is a Croatian island in the Adriatic Sea. It's best known for the white-pebble beach Zlatni Rat (Golden Cape), a favored windsurfing site outside the resort town of Bol. Supetar, the island's main town, offers a horseshoe-shaped beach. Seaside Pučišća features traditional architecture and an active quarry for the island's famous white limestone.

ROGOZNICA

Rogoznica is a popular tourist village on the Dalmatian coast in Croatia that lies in the southernmost part of the Šibenik-Knin County, in a deep bay sheltered from wind, about 30 km from Šibenik. In the 2001 census, the population of the village was 2,391, with 96% declaring themselves Croats. It is occasionally called Šibenska Rogoznica to distinguish it from Lokva Rogoznica, another tourist resort in Dalmatia.

SIBENIK

Move onto the historic town of Sibenik where a couple of kilometres north of the city is the Krka National Park. This is a must see and there are multiple locations within the park for swimming, including at the base of the main falls.

WELCOME TO CROATIA

Wishing you a wonderful cruise!
